Jarret Stoll Tees Up for Sick Children at RUH

(SASKATOON) - Edmonton Oilers #16 Jarret Stoll will be teeing up with fellow NHL celebrities for Saskatoon's premier Charity Golf Tournament - The Jarret Stoll Celebrity Golf Classic on June 19 & 20, 2008 at Moonlake Golf & Country Club.

Stoll, a fifth-year Oiler will raise funds in support of the Jarret Stoll Patient Comfort Fund for Sick Children at Royal University Hospital. The popular tournament is off to a great start, thanks to a $15,000 injection from the title sponsor, Felix Kerbler at Boston Pizza on 51st Street.

"The best predictor of the future is the past", says Tournament Chair, Theresa Grosse. "In two years we raised over $230,000 and I am confident we'll see that same enthusiasm repeated with an instant sell-out this year."

The Jarret Stoll Patient Comfort Fund for Children continues to provide items such as sleep chairs, TV/DVD electronics, blanket warmers and educational tools that help to create a comfortable hospital environment for young patients and their families.

Celebrities, who will be golfing in the 2008 classic, will be announced at a later date.

Sponsorship opportunities are now available. To guarantee your golf foursome today, please contact Candace at 655-6501 for a sponsorship package.

Otherwise, registration will commence at 9:00 am sharp on Wednesday, April 9, 2008. Entry fees for the 2008 Jarret Stoll Celebrity Golf Classic is $250 per golfer or $1,000 per foursome.
